ABOUT ESTEPONA:

Often overlooked in favour of nearby Marbella, the gorgeous town of Estepona is one of the Costa del Sol's hidden gems. It boasts one of Andalusia's prettiest old quarters as well as some of Málaga's best beaches and seafood restaurants – all reasons why you should visit before the rest of the world realises just how beautiful Estepona is.

Nowhere is this more obvious than in the town's enchanting oldest quarter – a barrio as every bit as attractive as Granada's Albaicin, Seville's Santa Cruz and Córdoba's San Basilio. A conspicuous feature of this neighbourhood – which is bounded to the north and east by the Avenida Andalusia, to the south by the Rada beach and to the west by the Avenida Juan Carlos I – is the profusion of colourful plant pots that adorn the whitewashed walls of its houses. Dotted about the facades like the polka spots on a flamenco dress, they bring the cobbled little lanes to life with their big reds, yellows, blues and greens.
