Spectacular corner apartment in a gated, tranquil complex located first line golf of La Quinta. The property is unusually larger than generally and it is a corner apartment, very bright with a large corner terrace of 70m<sup>2</sup> wrapping the property. Lovely garden, pool and golf views from living room and terrace. The property has three good size bedrooms, two full bathrooms, plus a guest toilet, completely new, spacious and modern kitchen with plenty storage and good cooking areas, has been renovated and is well presented even though it offers much further potential due to the size. This property is well kept and ready to move in no need to do anything to it, ideal for living throughout the year or as a summer home or even as a rental investment. Front line golf, with panoramic views as well as beautiful garden and pool views. Must be seen to be truly appreciated. The complex is well maintained with landscaped, manicured gardens, gated complex with both open and covered garage spaces. 5 minutes drive from Puerto Banus, amenities and beach.
