ABOUT MARBELLA

Marbella is known as a glamorous resort town and is a favourite location with the rich and famous, boosted by foreign residents who are seduced by the lifestyle. But there's plenty for ordinary folk to see and enjoy too in southern Spain's answer to St Tropez. The old town with its narrow cobbled streets and flower-filled plazas is packed with delightful shops and art galleries selling pretty clothes and accessories, and handmade wares. One of the prettiest spots is the fabled orange tree-filled Plaza de los Naranjos, which is located just off the main street and is home to the 16th-century town hall. In terms of eating out, Marbella's gastronomic scene is second to none, with everything from vegetarian and vegan cafes, to beachfront chiringuitos, and Michelin-starred restaurants. And of course the beaches are second to none - most visitors come to Marbella to enjoy the sun, sea and sand, which has been drawing expatriate communities since the 1950s when Prince Alfonso de Hohenlohe fell in love with the place and built a beachfront house, drawing all the starriest Hollywood celebs.

WHAT OUR CLIENTS SAY ABOUT US:

Would highly recommend Space Marbella if you are looking to buy in Spain. They helped us through the whole process from start to finish just over 5 years ago now and everything ran smoothly. More recently Lorraine has been brilliant!!! Obviously with the pandemic ongoing we haven't been able to get over the Spain for over a year now. She went over to our place and checked up on it for us. She spoke with our neighbours and checked that everything was okay. She also sent our Spanish post over to us here in the UK. She has gone above and beyond and we couldn't thank her enough for her time and effort in reassuring us that everything over there is okay!!!!
