New Luxury Villa Development

Welcome to San Pedro del Pinatar

This coastal town on the Costa Cálida is truly privileged, its shores are bathed by both the Mar Menor and the Mediterranean Sea, something unique and unusual on the Levantine coast of Spain. Its warm climate, with average temperatures of 18° all year round, and its more than 315 days of natural light, makes this beautiful Murcian municipality an ideal place both for holiday include three large bedrooms with electric shutters, two full bathrooms, a fully furnished and equipped kitchen with Balay appliances, decorative Onix marble in the living room area, garden area, terrace, private pool with Jacuzzi ... And much more!

This new project completes the space in the neighborhood that we have been creating since 2015. A residential and quiet place for our clients to rest, surrounded by all services throughout the year such
