Beautiful 2 bedroom Townhouse within walking distance of the beach

Are you looking to buy a Townhouse in Calahonda, Costa del Sol, Malaga?

This very comfortable, beautiful and well maintained corner house located in a small urbanized area (6 houses) with great sea views is a must see and feel! Next to the house there is a small garden and next to the garden there is a park with a path leading to the sea, which can be reached in about 8 minutes on foot. The townhouse is very cozy and warm and has a lot of atmosphere. Price includes furniture. A magnificent holiday home (or to stay) with a swimming pool. Upon entering the dead end you will find a small gated community with very friendly families and couples in 6 houses around a swimming pool. This house is the last house in the series.

When you reach the front door, you will see a door on the left that leads to the garden next door. When you enter, the kitchen is on the left and the stairs are on the right. The first bathroom is downstairs. The fully equipped kitchen has a nice bar, then you go into the living room. The living room has air conditioning, a wood-burning stove and a patio door leading to the terrace. On this terrace there is also a wood-fired oven where you can cook and grill outside. A pot of fragrant flowers separates the terrace from the garden and swimming pool.

Upstairs there are two large bedrooms with fitted wardrobes, air conditioning and authentic exposed beams. From the master bedroom, you walk through the porch door to the large balcony, from where you have a great view of Calahonda park which looks like a small forest next door and the sea. This house has everything you need for a great stay, but of course it is also very suitable for living.
