The living room seamlessly transitions to the south-facing terrace through bi-fold doors, offering stunning views of the pool, golf course, and sea. Glass curtains provide year-round use of the terrace, complemented by a ceiling fan for added comfort during warmer months.

The bathroom has been updated with a modern walk-in shower and radiator. Both bedrooms feature fitted wardrobes, gas radiators, ceiling fans, and air conditioning, with access to a rear terrace that can easily be enclosed for additional storage.

Included with the apartment is a private underground parking space with built-in storage. Close proximity to the clubhouse and three communal swimming pools adds to the convenience.

Situated within the serene Hacienda Riquelme Golf Resort, residents enjoy wide-open spaces, extensive gardens, and low-density construction, creating a safe and peaceful environment for living or holidays. The resort offers a supermarket, clubhouse, restaurant, and bar, with entertainment during the summer months.
